

X-International music, dance and majorette festival "Music&sea" September, 12-17, 2022 in Paralia, Greece

The International music, dance and majorette festival "Music & sea" takes place annually in the middle of September in the beautiful town of Paralia, Greece. The Festival does not have competitive character and the main concept of the same is joining music, vacation, friendship and fun. The idea of the Festival is to bring the music and dance closer to the people and to present the music on the streets and the squares. All ensembles, regardless of the members gender and age can apply for participation at the Festival.
